

MotherQuest 2020 Online Dates

Every month in our 2020 Online Program there are three dates you will need to look out for.

The first is the date your monthly modules will open. These dates are the same as the In-person Journey Women (you will find these dates in the centre column below). These are also the dates in the Wheel at the top of your dashboard (this will make sense soon).

The next dates are for the teaching calls. These calls will be one hour in duration and recorded and posted in the video section of each month's page (these dates are on the right). During each month's call you will receive a transmission of each Mother's Wisdom, a teaching and either a process or meditation. The written notes are in addition to these teachings

The third and most important date (on the right) are our Sister Circle calls. These calls are held during the last week of your Month and are held like we are sitting in Sacred Circle. This is your time to be seen and held with great reverence and tenderness (it might not always feel that way). This is also your chance to share your heart, witness your Journey Sisters, have one to one time with Lhamo and add depth, process and completion to your month. Please do your best to attend these circles.
